Senate Bill 507 (as reported without amendment)
Sponsor: Senator Glenn D. Steil
Committee: Government Operations

CONTENT

The bill would amend the Library of Michigan Act to require that the Legislative Council Administrator be a member of the 15-member Library of Michigan board of trustees, replacing the director of the Legislative Service Bureau. Further, the director of the Bureau and the State Librarian currently must coordinate the activities of the library with the Legislative Council. The bill would replace the director of the Bureau with the administrator.
