Rep. Gagliardi moved that the bill be given immediate effect.

The motion prevailed, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.

Rep. Jaye, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I oppose naming public, taxpayer paid buildings, after politicians, republican or democrat, dead or alive. There are many private citizens, who provided great public services, performed life saving heroics and improved the quality of life for Michigan citizens.

These taxpayers, private citizens, should be honored by having state facilities named after them.

My opposition to naming public buildings after politicians is the reason why I use the name “Olds Plaza Building” rather than “George Romney Building” as my State Capitol address.”

Messages from the Governor

The following veto message from the Governor was received and read:

Executive Office, Lansing, July 1, 1997

Today I have vetoed and am returning to you herewith, Enrolled House Bill 4052.

This bill, which would benefit approximately 71 retired Conservation Officers or their beneficiaries, is estimated to cost $1.45 million in unfunded accrued liability to the State Employees' Retirement System. No funding is appropriated for implementing this bill. Also, the precedent that this bill sets would impact future legislative sessions in the form of other bills seeking to include other employee groups. This is unacceptable.

In addition, Conservation Officers are currently advantaged by a number of special pension provisions. Specifically, Conservation Officer retirees or their beneficiaries receive either the thirteenth check bonus or a 3 percent/$300 per year adjustment. Unlike State Police retirees, they also are eligible for Social Security benefits. Additionally, unlike most state employees, Conservation Officers can retire based on years of service without having to reach a certain age.

For these reasons, I am returning Enrolled House Bill 4052 without signature.

Sincerely,
John Engler
Governor

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Willard, Ciaramitaro, Wallace, Fitzgerald, Cropsey, Nye and Gubow offered the following resolution:
House Resolution No. 120.

A resolution to call for the House of Representatives and the Senate to draft resolutions in plain English.

Clear communication is vital to the success of any operation. This is especially true in how government operates. People need to understand the workings of our democracy and the documents created by its institutions.

While not every issue or action can be simplified to the same level, there are several steps the legislature can take to remove barriers to communications. One area where antiquated language can be removed is how resolutions are drafted. Removing meaningless expressions can be an important symbol of sensitivity to the need to make our actions and documents as clear as possible.

The use of archaic words and phrases, including "whereas" and "now, therefore, be it," adds nothing to explaining actions the legislature takes in considering and adopting resolutions. Instead, they only make the documents more cumbersome.

In recent years, the legal community has tried to promote clearer language. The State Bar of Michigan has been particularly active in trying to discourage "legalese." Through legislation dealing with several other issues, including contracts, insurance, and judicial matters, the legislature has enacted sections of law to require plain English in various documents.

It is Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we call for the House of Representatives and the Senate to draft resolutions in plain English.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on House Oversight and Ethics.

Reps. Frank, Anthony, Wojno, LaForge, McBryde, DeHart, Gire, Baade, Rocca, McNutt, Hale, Llewellyn, Bodem, Crissman, Gernaat, Dalman, Middaugh, Cropsey, Freeman, Richner, Basham, Dobronski, Banks, Goschka, Rhead, Voorhees, Baird, Hanley, Schermesser, Fitzgerald, Bogardus, Profit, Galloway, Scranton, Birkholz, DeVuyst, Green, Dobb, Brackenridge, Oxender, Gubow, Scott, Vaughn, Kelly, Cherry, Tesanovich, Wetters, Parks and Murphy offered the following resolution:

A resolution honoring the Nouvel Catholic Central High School Varsity Baseball Team.

Whereas, It is with great respect and appreciation for their outstanding season that this legislative body is proud to extend the highest praise and commendation to the members of the Nouvel Catholic Central High School Varsity

Baseball Team. These exceptional student athletes have been instrumental in defeating DeWitt High School 3-2 in the 1997 Class B Baseball State Championship; and

Whereas, Under the skilled and inspirational guidance of Head Coach Steve Jaksa, who has led the Nouvel Baseball Team to two state championships, a career record of 327-99-9 in his 11-year tenure shows his determination, commitment to achieving a goal, and responsibility to the young men on the team; and

Whereas, Assistant Coaches Dave Horny, Art Felton, Dan Behmlander, and Trainer John Rogers had a tremendous impact in Nouvel's road to the 1997 Class B State Championship; and

Whereas, Through sterling offensive performances, extraordinary defensive play, and an exemplary team spirit, Nouvel Baseball players Matt Alfano, Matt Buggia, Juston Davenport, Joe Fahndrich, Phil Gobeyn, Rob Guzman, Eric Hammerbacher, Kris Krzywosinski, Brian Kunitzer, Bill Link, Ryan McGraw, Marty Meunier, John Miller, John Meyers, Ramiro Torrez, Tim Turner, Dave Warnert, and Shaun Weisenberger deserve recognition for their great accomplishment; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That a unanimous accolade of praise is extended to honor the Nouvel Catholic Central High School Varsity Baseball Team for winning the 1997 Class B State Championship; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to Nouvel Catholic Central High School's coaches and players as evidence of our esteem and best wishes.

House Resolution No. 123.

A resolution honoring Kenneth Teysen upon the occasion of his retirement.

Whereas, It is with the utmost respect for Kenneth Teysen that the members of this legislative body offer tribute to his distinguished career as Mackinac Island State Park Commissioner. It is a distinct pleasure and a privilege to join with his family in commemorating the countless hours of service that Kenneth has offered his community. While representing the interests of Mackinaw City, Kenneth served as the Secretary of the Mackinac Island State Park Commission. The impeccable service record that Kenneth Teysen has built throughout his three decades of service on the Commission is outstanding, distinguishing him as the longest serving member of any State of Michigan Commission. We believe this indicates his loyalty and commitment to serving the public, and we take this opportunity to offer him our highest praise on the occasion of his retirement; and

Whereas, Kenneth has proven himself to be an exceptional individual, both in his service to the people of the State of Michigan and in his personal life. Kenneth began his career after graduating from Michigan State University with a Bachelor's Degree, which was excellent preparation for his professional life. However, the sparkling character of both Kenneth and his wife, Betty, was the sole guarantee of a successful marriage. Their years together have been long and happy, and Betty has been instrumental in Kenneth's continuing success; and

Whereas, The master of most every endeavor, Kenneth is the proprietor of two businesses in Mackinaw City. He is the owner and operator of Teysen's Cafeteria and Gift Shop in Mackinaw City as well as the Woodland Indian Museum. The museum has been a particular favorite of residents, exhibiting an expansive collection of Native American art as well as lumbering artifacts. With an increasing number of visitors to the museum, it has become a popular attraction featured by AAA. It is obvious that whether it be for his career in public service, his personal accomplishments, or his various entrepreneurial successes, Kenneth Teysen is a man deserving of our sincere esteem; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we hereby honor and commend Kenneth Teysen on the occasion of his retirement from the Mackinac Island State Park Commission. His many years of diligent service have made him both known and loved to many people. The people of Michigan owe him heartfelt thanks. May he know of our esteem for him in the present, and our very best wishes for the future; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to Kenneth Teysen as evidence of our gratitude for his contributions to the State of Michigan.

working together is success.” — Henry Ford*

Whereas, It is with great pride and extreme pleasure that we commend the National Mine Middle School National History Day Team: Meredith Lamb, Ariana Jeske, Michelle Morisette, and Christie Gibbons, their teachers, and the staff and parents of NICE Community School District upon the team’s selection to receive honors from the University of Maryland as the 1997 National History Day Champions. The students competed with seventy-eight entries from around the United States to earn top honors in the junior media group for its audiovisual project: “Polio: A Tragic Epidemic Defeated By A Triumphant Vaccine.” This recognition, coupled with their recognition as Michigan’s Best of State, is a well-earned milestone, symbolic of innovation, planning, and the personal commitment of many people who share the belief that education is one of the greatest gifts we can give our children; and

Whereas, In keeping with Red Dust tradition, the level of excellence reflected by these National Mine Middle School students is attributed to a unity of purpose that brings together all the elements of a successful learning environment. By using a team approach, these students will be able to deal effectively with the wide range of influences necessary to prepare them for the challenges of tomorrow. With the fine record these academic students have achieved, this team of disciplined students have generated great pride throughout the entire Upper Peninsula; and

Whereas, Principal Maxine Honkala, Superintendent Ron Kulie, and all the good parents of the National Mine Middle School realize that a key part of achieving great results is by expecting great results, or as was more aptly stated by President John F. Kennedy, “For of those to whom much is given, much is required.” The 1997 National History Day team has proved this theory by successfully applying the knowledge they have gained to become national champions. Clearly, the fortunate students at NICE Community School District - National Mine Middle School are well along the path to a quality education; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That in the spirit of Red Dust, this document is offered to congratulate the 1997 National History Day Champions: Meredith Lamb, Ariana Jeske, Michelle Morisette, and Christie Gibbons, their advisors, Sharon Richards, Bobbi Ameen, Principal Honkala, teachers, staff, and parents of the NICE Community School District - National Mine Middle School upon the team’s recognition as the 1997 National History Day Champions. In the face of challenge and pressure, this group of young people maintained their focus and accepted nothing less than their best. We look forward to their continued excellence, we commend the example they have set for those who follow in their footsteps, and we wish them well in their future endeavors; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the National History Day team from National Mine Middle School as evidence of our esteem for their accomplishments.

Pending the reference of the resolution to a committee,

Rep. Gagliardi moved that Rule 77 be suspended and the resolution be considered at this time.

The motion prevailed, 3/5 of the members present voting therefor.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

Reps. Willard, Ciaramitaro, Wallace, Fitzgerald, Cropsey, Nye and Gubow offered the following concurrent resolution:

House Concurrent Resolution No. 49.

A concurrent resolution to call for the House of Representatives and the Senate to draft resolutions in plain English.

Clear communication is vital to the success of any operation. This is especially true in how government operates. People need to understand the workings of our democracy and the documents created by its institutions.

While not every issue or action can be simplified to the same level, there are several steps the legislature can take to remove barriers to communications. One area where antiquated language can be removed is how resolutions are drafted. Removing meaningless expressions can be an important symbol of sensitivity to the need to make our actions and documents as clear as possible.

The use of archaic words and phrases, including “whereas” and “now, therefore, be it,” adds nothing to explaining actions the legislature takes in considering and adopting resolutions. Instead, they only make the documents more cumbersome.

In recent years, the legal community has tried to promote clearer language. The State Bar of Michigan has been particularly active in trying to discourage “legalese.” Through legislation dealing with several other issues, including contracts, insurance, and judicial matters, the legislature has enacted sections of law to require plain English in various documents.

It is Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That we call for the House of Representatives and the Senate to draft resolutions in plain English.

The concurrent resolution was referred to the Committee on House Oversight and Ethics.

Reps. Voorhees, Nye, Cropsey, LeTarte, Jelinek, Lowe, Dalman, DeVuyst, McBryde, Horton, Whyman, Jansen, Jaye, Mans, Cassis, Richner, Green, Kukuk, Walberg, Law and Perricone offered the following concurrent resolution:

House Concurrent Resolution No. 50.

A concurrent resolution to oppose approval of any tribal-state gaming compacts until the Michigan Legislature has thoroughly studied the impact of casino gaming in our state and actively solicited citizen input.

Whereas, The state of Michigan currently has 19 casinos (including Indian bingo parlors), with 3 more pending in the city of Detroit, making it the state with the fourth most casinos in the United States of America; and

Whereas, The exponential growth of gambling has not allowed governing officials the opportunity to study its social and economic impact on the citizens of Michigan; and

Whereas, The Secretary of the Interior has not yet made a decision on how to resolve disputes between states and Indian tribes over gambling compacts; and

Whereas, The U. S. Supreme Court's decision in Seminole Tribe of Florida v. Florida upheld the Eleventh Amendment and made unenforceable the right of tribal governments to bring suits against states in federal court for failure to negotiate in good faith. The Indian Gaming Regulatory Act of 1988, through its provisions for state-tribal negotiations, is the only vehicle through which a tribe can operate Class III Gaming; and

Whereas, Nothing exists in the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act or elsewhere that bestows the Secretary of the Interior with the authority to allow tribal operation of Class III gaming and bypass the compacting process established by law; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That we oppose approval of the tribal-state gaming compacts negotiated between the Governor and the Little River Band of Ottawa Indians, the Pokagon Band of Potawatomi Indians, the Little Traverse Bay Bands of Odawa Indians, and the Nottawaseppi Huron Band of Potawatomi until the Michigan Legislature has adequately and thoroughly studied the impact of casino gaming on our state and actively solicited citizen input; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Governor, the respective tribes, and the United States Secretary of the Interior.

The concurrent resolution was referred to the Committee on House Oversight and Ethics.

Motions and Resolutions

Rep. Stallworth offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 125.

A resolution to create a special committee to study the issue of mergers between middle schools and high schools.

Whereas, As school districts adapt to changes in education, community and student needs, and limited resources, some school officials are looking into mergers between middle schools and high schools. This option involves many considerations that need to be examined thoroughly; and

Whereas, Any local school district thinking about merging a middle school with a high school must prepare for the unique emotional needs of young people as well as the academic factors involved. Decisions on combining middle and high school students must account for the huge range of maturity levels and how best to safeguard our young people. Advantages and opportunities for the district and for certain students from bringing schools together must be balanced against potential problems for other students; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we create a special committee to study the issue of mergers between middle schools and high schools. The special committee shall consist of five members of the House to be appointed in the same manner as standing committees are appointed, and shall function during the 1997 and 1998 Regular Sessions of the Legislature, the interim between the 1997 and 1998 Regular Sessions of the Legislature, and until December 31,
