House Bill 5272 (as passed by the House)
Sponsor: Representative Randy Richardville
House Committee: Education
Senate Committee: Education

Date Completed: 9-20-00

CONTENT

The bill would amend the Revised School Code to permit the board of a school district or intermediate school district (ISD) to employ as a substitute teacher a person without a teaching certificate if the person had at least 90 semester hours of college credit from an accredited community college.

Currently, a school board or ISD board may employ a person without a teaching certificate as a substitute teacher if he or she has at least 90 semester hours of college credit from a college or university. The bill specifies that under this provision "college" would include a community college that was accredited by a nationally recognized accrediting agency.
