8 (3) Subsection (2) may be applied to a person who is placed 9 on probation for life pursuant to sections 1(4) and 2(3) of this 10 chapter for the first 5 years of that probation.

11 (4) The court may impose other lawful conditions of proba-
12 tion as the circumstances of the case require or warrant or as in 13 its judgment are proper.

14 (5) If an order or amended order of probation contains a

25 (6) If the court requires the probationer to pay costs, the 26 costs shall be limited to expenses specifically incurred in

1 prosecuting the defendant or providing legal assistance to the 2 defendant and supervision of the probationer.

3 (7) If the court imposes costs as part of a sentence of pro-
4 bation, all of the following apply:

5 (a) The court shall not require a probationer to pay costs
6 unless the probationer is or will be able to pay them during the 7 term of probation. In determining the amount and method of pay-8 ment of costs, the court shall take into account the 9 probationer's financial resources and the nature of the burden
10 that payment of costs will impose, with due regard to his or her 11 other obligations.

12 (b) A probationer who is required to pay costs and who is 13 not in willful default of the payment of the costs may petition
14 the sentencing judge or his or her successor at any time for a 15 remission of the payment of any unpaid portion of those costs.
16 If the court determines that payment of the amount due will 17 impose a manifest hardship on the probationer or his or her imme-
18 diate family, the court may remit all or part of the amount due 19 in costs or modify the method of payment.

20 (8) If a probationer is required to pay costs as part of a
21 sentence of probation, the court may require payment to be made
22 immediately or the court may provide for payment to be made
23 within a specified period of time or in specified installments.

24 (9) If a probationer is ordered to pay costs as part of a
25 sentence of probation, compliance with that order shall be a con-
26 dition of probation. The court may revoke probation if the 27 probationer fails to comply with the order and if the probationer

1 has not made a good faith effort to comply with the order. In 2 determining whether to revoke probation, the court shall consider
3 the probationer's employment status, earning ability, and finan-
4 cial resources, the willfulness of the probationer's failure to 5 pay, and any other special circumstances that may have a bearing
6 on the probationer's ability to pay. The proceedings provided
7 for in this subsection are in addition to those provided in sec-
8 tion 4 of this chapter.
