12 public body's ability to maintain the physical security of custo-
13 dial or penal institutions occupied by persons arrested or con-
14 victed of a crime or admitted because of a mental disability,
15 unless the public interest in disclosure under this act outweighs
16 the public interest in nondisclosure.

17 (d) Records or information specifically described and 18 exempted from disclosure by statute.

19 (e) Information the release of which would prevent the 20 public body from complying with section 444 of subpart 4 of part

22 90-247, 20 U.S.C. 1232g, commonly referred to as the family edu-23 cational rights and privacy act of 1974.

24 (f) A public record or information described in this section
25 that is furnished by the public body originally compiling, pre-
26 paring, or receiving the record or information to a public 27 officer or public body in connection with the performance of the

22 lar instance the public interest in encouraging frank communica-
23 tions between officials and employees of public bodies clearly 24 outweighs the public interest in disclosure. This exemption does
