ENROLLED HOUSE BILL No. 6193

AN ACT to amend 1917 PA 167, entitled “An act to promote the health, safety and welfare of the people by regulating the maintenance, alteration, health, safety, and improvement of dwellings; to define the classes of dwellings affected by the act, and to establish administrative requirements; to prescribe procedures for the maintenance, improvement, or demolition of certain commercial buildings; to establish remedies; to provide for enforcement; to provide for the demolition of certain dwellings; and to fix penalties for the violation of this act,” by amending section 85 (MCL 125.485).

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

Sec. 85. (1) A health officer or other appropriate public official, as the mayor may designate, may issue an order requiring all occupants of a dwelling to vacate the dwelling if an inspector or officer of a local health department certifies that any of the following apply:

- (a) The dwelling is infected with a contagious disease.
- (b) The dwelling is unfit for human habitation.
- (c) The dwelling is dangerous to life or health because the dwelling is in disrepair.
- (d) There are defects in the drainage, plumbing, lighting, ventilation, or construction of the dwelling.
- (e) A nuisance on the premises is likely to cause sickness among the occupants of the dwelling.

(2) An order issued pursuant to subsection (1) must require all occupants of the dwelling to vacate the dwelling within not less than 24 hours and not more than 10 days after the date the order was issued and state the reasons why the occupants must vacate the dwelling.

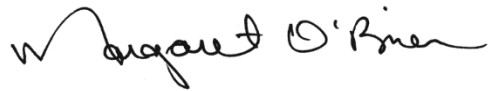

(3) If the occupants of the dwelling do not vacate the premises within the time period specified under subsection (1), the health officer or other appropriate public official, as the mayor may designate, may cause the dwelling to be vacated.

(4) The health officer or other appropriate public official, as the mayor may designate, may revoke the order issued pursuant to subsection (1) or extend the time period within which to comply with the order, if he or she is satisfied that the danger from the dwelling has ceased to exist or that the dwelling is fit for human habitation.
