

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 113

Reps. Scott, Young, Aiyash, O'Neal, Weiss, Thanedar, Brabec, Tyrone Carter, Tate, Cavanagh, Brenda Carter, Jones, Yancey, Bezotte, Breen, Brixie, Cherry, Ellison, Haadsma, Hope, Kuppa, Morse, Sabo, Shannon, Sneller, Sowerby, Steenland and Witwer offered the following resolution:

1           A resolution to declare May 20, 2021, as Negro Leaguers
2 Baseball Day in the state of Michigan.

3           Whereas, Even though African-Americans were excluded from 4 playing in the Major Leagues of their time with their white
5 counterparts, the desire of many African-Americans to play baseball 6 could not be repressed; and

7           Whereas, Major League Baseball did not fully integrate its 8 leagues until July 1959; and

1           Whereas, African-Americans began organizing their own
2 professional baseball teams in 1885; and

3           Whereas, The skills and abilities of Negro League players
4 eventually made Major League Baseball realize the need to integrate 5 the sport; and

6           Whereas, Seven separate baseball leagues, known collectively
7 as the ``Negro Baseball Leagues'', were organized by African-8 Americans between 1920 and 1960; and

9           Whereas, The Negro Baseball Leagues included exceptionally 10 talented players who played the game at its highest level; and

11           Whereas, On May 2, 1920, the Negro National League, the first 12 successful Negro League, played its first game; and

13           Whereas, Andrew ``Rube'' Foster founded the Negro National 14 League on February 13, 1920, at the Paseo YMCA in Kansas City,
15 Missouri, and also managed and played for the Chicago American 16 Giants, and was later inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame; and

17           Whereas, Leroy ``Satchel'' Paige, who began his long career in 18 the Negro Leagues and did not make his Major League debut until the 19 age of 42, is considered one of the greatest pitchers the game has 20 ever seen. During his long career, Paige thrilled millions of 21 baseball fans with his skill and legendary showboating. His 22 exemplary tenure began with winning his first big league victory in 23 his first game on July 15, 1948. This momentous moment helped the 24 Cleveland Indians on the road to winning the pennant the same year.
25 He was later inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame; and

26           Whereas, Josh Gibson, who was the greatest slugger of the 27 Negro Leagues, tragically died months before the integration of 28 baseball, and was later inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame;
29 and

1           Whereas, Jackie Robinson, whose career began with the Negro 2 League Kansas City Monarchs, became the first African-American to 3 play in the Major Leagues in April 1947, was named Major League
4 Baseball Rookie of the Year in 1947, subsequently led the Brooklyn
5 Dodgers to 6 National League pennants and a World Series
6 championship, and was later inducted into the Baseball Hall of 7 Fame; and

8           Whereas, Larry Doby, whose career began with the Negro League 9 Newark Eagles, became the first African-American to play in the 10 American League in July 1947, was an All-Star 7 times in the Major
11 Leagues and 2-time American league home run leader, and was later 12 inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame; and

13           Whereas, John Jordan ``Buck`` O'Neil was a player and manager 14 of the Negro League Kansas City Monarchs, became the first African-15 American coach in the Major Leagues with the Chicago Cubs in 1962, 16 served on the Veterans Committee of the National Baseball Hall of 17 Fame, chaired the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum Board of Directors,
18 and worked tirelessly to promote the history of the Negro Leagues;

20           Whereas, James ``Cool Papa`` Bell played, coached, and managed 21 in the Negro Leagues from 1922 to 1950, discovered, trained, and 22 assisted numerous Negro League players into the Major Leagues, and 23 was later inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame; and

24           Whereas, Minnie Minoso, the ``Cuban Comet,`` played on the New 25 York Cubans when they won the Negro League World Series, broke the 26 color barrier on the Chicago White Sox when he joined the team in 27 1951, and was the first black Latino to play in the Major Leagues;
28 and

29           Whereas, The talents of such players as Josh Gibson, James

1 ``Cool Papa'' Bell, and Oscar Charleston earned them recognition in 2 the Baseball Hall of Fame as well as the Sporting News List of 3 Baseball Greatest Players; and

4       Whereas, Auto Zone Park in Memphis, Tennessee, hosted the 5 inaugural Civil Rights Game between the defending World Champion
6 St. Louis Cardinals and the Cleveland Indians in commemoration of 7 the civil rights movement, on March 31, 2007; and

8       Whereas, Michigan made significant contributions to the Negro 9 Leagues. The Detroit Stars, founded in 1919 by Tenny Blount and the 10 father of black baseball Rube Foster, was a prominent charter
11 member of the league. All but two of the seasons they played were 12 winning seasons. They produced numerous Hall of Fame inductees, 13 including Turkey Stearnes and Andy "Lefty" Cooper; and 14       Whereas, By achieving success on the baseball field, African-15 American baseball players helped break down color barriers and 16 integrate African-Americans into all aspects of society in the 17 United States: now, therefore, be it

18       Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of 19 this legislative body declare May 20, 2021, as Negro Leaguers
20 Baseball Day in the state of Michigan. We recognize the teams and 21 players of the Negro Baseball Leagues for their achievements, 22 dedication, sacrifices, and contributions to both baseball and our 23 nation.
