

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO.233

Rep. Posthumus offered the following resolution:

1 A resolution to declare February 18, 2022, as Conductive
2 Education Day in the state of Michigan.

3 Whereas, Conductive Education (CE) was developed over seventy 4 years ago in Hungary by Dr. András Pető. CE is a unique teaching 5 system that maximizes the independence and mobility of children and 6 adults with neuromotor disabilities, such as stroke survivors and 7 those with cerebral palsy, multiple sclerosis, acquired brain
8 injuries, Parkinson's disease, and spina bifida; and

9 Whereas, CE operates from a core belief in neuroplasticity,
10 the lifelong ability of the brain to reorganize neural pathways 11 based on new experiences, and on the premise that no matter how 12 severe the disability, people can learn and improve when they are 13 motivated; and

1 Whereas, CE has the potential to make a significant, life-
2 changing impact on the mobility and independence of close to 9
3 million people in the United States and Canada. CE helps
4 individuals learn their way to independence; now, therefore, be it

5 Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of 6 this legislative body declare February 18, 2022, as Conductive
7 Education Day in the state of Michigan. We encourage support for 8 this important program that increases the independence of people
9 with disabilities in our community; and be it further

10 Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the 11 Association for Conductive Education in North America with our 12 highest esteem.
