Rep. Joseph D. Fox, from the 101st District, offered the following invocation:

“Dear Lord of the Universe,

Today we invoke Your Name and presence with Adoration, Confession, Thanksgiving and Supplication.

We Adore You as the King of Kings, Lord of Lords, as the One on Whose shoulders rests the government of this world. You are our Judge, You are our Lawgiver, and You are our King. It is You Who will save us. Hallelujah!

We Confess to You as Your people in the state of Michigan that we have not followed Your Word and Your Truth. We have given ourselves over to many other gods and to the taking of innocent life. Please forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.

We Thank You for the abundant blessings that You have poured out upon us and our families. You have placed us in this beautiful state of Michigan, amidst all of the lakes, fields, rivers, and forests. You have given us bountiful harvests. You are a good God!

We now Supplicate You, we proclaim with Psalm 119:126, that ‘It is time for You to act, O Lord; Your law is being broken.’ Finally, we pray Your blessing upon this State and upon this House of Representatives:

May the Lord bless you and keep you,
Make His face shine upon and be gracious to you.
May the Lord turn His face toward you
And give you His peace.
Amen.”

The Speaker called the Speaker Pro Tempore to the Chair.

Rep. Aiyash moved that Rep. Bruck be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Messages from the Governor

The following message from the Governor was received April 25, 2023 and read:

EXECUTIVE ORDER

No. 2023-3

Declaration of State of Emergency

On April 14, 2023, I issued Executive Order 2023-2 declaring a state of emergency for the counties of Gogebic and Houghton due to widespread flooding caused by the rapid melting of the snowpack. This same accelerated thaw has also caused widespread flooding in the counties of Alger, Baraga, Dickinson, Iron, Marquette, and Ontonagon. These counties have experienced road and bridge closures; damage to culverts, embankments, and road surfaces; overwhelmed storm water and sewer systems; and deposits of silt and debris.

Local officials in the impacted counties have taken several actions to respond to the situation, including but not limited to activating the emergency response and recovery aspects of their emergency operations plans, issuing emergency public information, and otherwise utilizing local resources to address these conditions. Despite these measures, local resources are insufficient to respond to the widespread flooding and related damages. State assistance is necessary to effectively respond to, and recover from, the impacts of this flooding.

Section 1 of article 5 of the Michigan Constitution of 1963 vests the executive power of the State of Michigan in the governor. Under the Emergency Management Act, 1976 PA 390, as amended, MCL 30.403(4), “[t]he governor shall, by executive order or proclamation, declare a state of emergency if he or she finds that an emergency has occurred or that the threat of an emergency exists.”

Therefore, acting under the Michigan Constitution of 1963 and Michigan law, including the Emergency Management Act, 1976 PA 390, as amended, MCL 30.401 to 30.421, I order the following:

1. In addition to the counties of Gogebic and Houghton, a state of emergency is also declared for the counties of Alger, Baraga, Dickinson, Iron, Marquette, and Ontonagon.
2. The Emergency Management and Homeland Security Division of the Department of State Police shall coordinate and maximize all state efforts and may call upon all state departments to utilize available resources to assist in the designated area pursuant to the Michigan Emergency Management Plan.
3. The state of emergency is terminated at such time as the threats to public health, safety, and property caused by the emergency no longer exist, and appropriate programs have been implemented to recover from the effects of this emergency, but in no case later than May 12, unless extended as provided by the Emergency Management Act.

House Resolution No. 82.

A resolution to declare April 23-April 29, 2023, as Infertility Awareness Week in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, 1 in 8 couples have trouble getting pregnant or sustaining a pregnancy; and

Whereas, The World Health Organization and American Medical Association define infertility as a disease; and

Whereas, Infertility affects women and men equally and does not discriminate based on race, religion, sexual orientation, marital status, or socioeconomic status; and

Whereas, The LGBTQ+ community also faces challenges when building their families; and

Whereas, All people facing infertility challenges should have access to all family building options; and

Whereas, Family building options include adoption and medical treatment, such as in vitro fertilization and third-party reproduction; and

Whereas, Cost and lack of insurance coverage are barriers for many to access the family building option they need; and

Whereas, Racial and socioeconomic disparities exist among those accessing fertility care, therefore raising awareness of infertility and the barriers faced by the family building community is the first step to removing these barriers; and

Whereas, Michigan joins the National Infertility Association and dedicated volunteers, health care professionals, and members of the infertility and family building community by participating in this promotion; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare April 23–29, 2023, as Infertility Awareness Week in the state of Michigan.

House Resolution No. 81.

A resolution to declare April 25, 2023, as Librarian and Library Worker Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Libraries are cultural institutions at the heart of every Michigan community and campus, and the heartbeat of every library is its people – its librarians and library workers; and

Whereas, Michigan’s librarians and library workers demonstrate an unwavering commitment to excellence in their profession that inspires and enriches the lives of all who visit our libraries; and

Whereas, Michigan’s librarians and library workers strive to create inclusive collections and programs, and provide access to information and resources to all members of the community regardless of race, ethnicity, creed, ability, sexual orientation, gender identity, or socio-economic status; and

Whereas, Michigan’s librarians and library workers promote literacy and life-long learning and foster creativity and innovation; and

Whereas, Michigan’s librarians and library workers form welcoming spaces that promote local connection and foster a sense of community, advancing understanding and civic engagement; and

Whereas, Michigan’s librarians and library workers create safe places for their community members to explore new ideas anonymously without fear of judgment, hatred, or reprisal; and

Whereas, Michigan’s librarians and library workers make order out of chaos and help families in Michigan find the information they want AND the information they didn’t even know they were looking for; and

Whereas, Michigan’s librarians and library workers demonstrate courage and professionalism in upholding the principles of intellectual freedom and open access to information for all, even in the face of opposition or controversy; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare April 25, 2023, as Librarian and Library Worker Day in the state of Michigan. We recognize and honor the contributions of Michigan’s librarians and library workers and commend them for their advocacy and leadership in protecting intellectual freedom and the right to read, ensuring equity of access to information for all Michiganders, promoting literacy, and creating welcoming spaces, programs, and collections that inspire and enrich the lives of all Michiganders. We celebrate this occasion to acknowledge the commitment, dedication, and innovation of Michigan’s librarians and library workers, and to thank them for their invaluable service and contributions to the state.
