SUMMARY:

Taken together, House Bills 4293 to 4302 would amend different statutes to, among other things, prohibit marriage to or between individuals who are under 18 years of age; make 18 years of age the legal age to marry; remove references to marriage involving a minor; eliminate marriage as an automatic factor for emancipation; and remove certain marriage-related exceptions from criminal sexual conduct violations currently available to teachers, school employees, and school administrators.

House Bill 4293 would amend 1921 PA 352, which currently prohibits the marriage of a person under 16 years of age and voids such a marriage, to prohibit the marriage of an individual under 18 years of age and to declare such a marriage void. The bill would also delete a provision stating that the act does not prohibit probate judges from exercising their powers to perform marriages as provided by 1897 PA 180 (see HB 4295, below).

MCL 551.51

House Bill 4294 would amend 1887 PA 128, which establishes the minimum age for contracting marriage, to eliminate a provision allowing a person who is 16 years of age but less than 18 years of age to marry with the written consent of one of their parents or their legal guardian. The bill would also delete requirements that the written consent be presented to the county clerk with the marriage application and be preserved on file in the office of the county clerk.

Further, a charter county with a population of over 2.0 million may now impose by ordinance a marriage license fee in a different amount than prescribed in the act. The bill would change the population threshold to over 1.5 million based on the 2010 federal decennial census. (This would be a closed set applying only to Wayne County, which is a charter county that had a population of 1.8 million in the 2010 census. Macomb County, now Michigan's only other charter county, had a population of just under 841,000 in the 2010 census.)

House Bill 4295 would amend 1897 PA 180, which provides for the issuance of marriage licenses without publicity in certain cases. The act allows a probate judge to issue, without publicity, a marriage license to a person who “desires to keep the exact date of his or her marriage to a person of the opposite sex a secret,” if there is good reason that is both expressed in the application and determined sufficient by the judge. The bill would retain this provision.

The act also allows a probate judge to marry without publicity persons under marriageable age upon a written request of either of the following:

- All of the living parents of both parties, and their guardian or guardians if either or both parents are dead.
- If only one party to the marriage is under the marriageable age, that party's parents or guardians.

The bill would eliminate that authority and delete provisions pertaining to underage marriages.

MCL 551.201

House Bill 4296 would amend 1919 PA 160. The act provides that the legal marriage of a minor releases the minor from parental control and entitles the minor's spouse to all the same rights, benefits, and privileges, and subjects the minor to the same duties, liabilities, and responsibilities, as if the minor spouse were of legal age at the time of the marriage.

The bill would limit this provision to apply only a marriage entered into before the bill's effective date.

MCL 551.251

House Bill 4297 would amend the Estates and Protected Individuals Code to eliminate the authority of a guardian or limited guardian to consent to a minor ward's marriage. The bill would retain the current authority of a personal representative to distribute estate assets otherwise distributable in amounts of up to $5,000 per year to a minor if married, but would limit this authority to apply only with regard to a minor married before the bill's effective date.

MCL 700.2519 et seq.

House Bill 4298 would amend the Safe Families for Children Act, which currently prohibits a parent or guardian from delegating the parent's or guardian's own power to consent to marriage of a minor child. The bill would delete the reference to marriage of a minor child from that provision and would explicitly provide that a parent is not authorized to consent to the marriage of a child who is under the legal age of marriage.

MCL 722.1555

House Bill 4299 would amend 2001 PA 125. Currently, a hotel or bed and breakfast may require an emancipated minor to present a marriage license or other evidence to document the minor's status as an emancipated minor when renting or leasing a room in the establishment. The bill would delete the reference to a marriage license.

MCL 427.304

House Bill 4300 would amend 1846 RS 84 ("Of Divorce"), which allows a parent or guardian to bring an action to annul a marriage on the grounds that one of the parties was under the age of legal consent. The act does not allow the marriage to be annulled on the application of a party who was of the age of legal consent at the time of the marriage. The act also does not allow the annulment when it appears that the parties, after they had attained the age of consent, had freely inhabited as husband and wife. The bill would delete the italicized text.

MCL 552.34

House Bill 4301 would amend 1968 PA 293, which among other things establishes the conditions for emancipation of minors. Currently, an emancipation occurs by operation of law when a minor is validly married. The bill would delete this provision. In addition, the act confers on a minor who is emancipated various rights and responsibilities of an adult. One of the listed rights is the right to marry. The bill would delete that provision.

MCL 722.4 and 722.4e

House Bill 4302 would amend the Michigan Penal Code. Currently, enticing a minor under the age of 16 years from the minor's parents, guardian, or other person having legal charge of the minor, without their consent, for the purpose of prostitution, concubinage, sexual intercourse, or marriage, is a felony punishable by a imprisonment for not more than 10 years. The bill would delete the reference to "marriage" in this provision.

Criminal sexual conduct in the third degree and fourth degree

Engaging in sexual penetration with another person under certain circumstances constitutes criminal sexual conduct (CSC) in the third degree, and engaging in sexual contact under certain circumstances constitutes CSC in the fourth degree. One of the circumstances for either offense is that the other person is at least 16 years of age but less than 18 and a student at a public or nonpublic school and the actor is a teacher, substitute teacher, or administrator of that school, school district, or intermediate school district. However, it is not third degree CSC or fourth degree CSC if the other person (minor) is emancipated or if both persons are lawfully married to each other at the time of the alleged violation. The bill would eliminate the italicized text.¹

¹ Note: This bill does not appear to account for existing situations in which, at the time of the marriage, it was legal for the actor and the minor to marry. For example, if one party is still under the age of 18 at the time the bill takes effect, or the statutes of limitations have not expired, and the circumstances described above for a third or fourth

It is also CSC in the third or fourth degree if the other person is at least 16 years of age but less than 26 years old and is receiving special education services and the actor is a teacher, substitute teacher, administrator, employee, or contractual service provider of the school, school district, or intermediate school district. However, this does not apply if both persons are lawfully married to each other at the time of the alleged violation. The bill would revise the exception to apply if both persons are at least 18 years of age and were lawfully married to each at the time of the alleged violation.

CSC in the first through fourth degrees and assault with intent to commit CSC

Currently, a person may be charged and convicted for criminal sexual conduct in the first through fourth degrees and assault with the intent to commit criminal sexual conduct in the first through third degrees even if the victim is the person's spouse. However, a person cannot be charged or convicted solely because the legal spouse is under the age of 16. The bill would delete this exemption.²

MCL 750.13 et seq.

House Bills 4293 to 4296 are tie-barred to each other, and House Bills 4297 and 4302 are each tie-barred to House Bill 4293. A bill cannot take effect unless each bill to which it is tie-barred is also enacted.

FISCAL IMPACT:

The bills would not have a significant fiscal impact on state expenditures to the Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) or local units of government.

degree CSC violation are met, it appears to raise the question of whether the other party could be guilty of committing CSC in the third or fourth degree, as applicable.

² Note: The bill would appear to apply this provision to persons who lawfully married under the laws of other states as well as to a person whose marriage to a minor under the age of 16 was before the bill's effective date.
