HOUSE RESOLUTION NO.221

Reps. Brenda Carter, Aiyash, Brabec, Breen, Byrnes, Fitzgerald, Glanville, Haadsma, Hope, Hoskins, Liberati, Paiz, Rheingans, Rogers, Schuette and Weiss offered the following resolution:

1 A resolution to declare April 2024 as Financial Literacy Month 2 in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, The informed use of credit and other financial products and services benefits individual consumers and promotes economic growth; and

6 Whereas, Financial literacy and learning these skills at an 7 early age encourages greater economic self-sufficiency, higher levels of successful homeownership, and enhanced retirement

8

9 security, particularly among low and moderate income citizens; and

10 Whereas, Michigan has formally participated in financial

2

- 1 literacy programming for years through the collaboration and
- 2 coordinated effort of hundreds of organizations including financial
- 3 institutions, non-profit groups, government entities, schools, and
- 4 libraries. The initiative showcases these organizations'
- 5 educational resources, strengthens public-private partnerships,
- 6 engages the media, and connects people with resources to help them
- 7 better manage their money; and
- 8 Whereas, A greater understanding of, and familiarity with,
- 9 financial markets and institutions will lead to increased economic
- 10 activity and growth; and
- 11 Whereas, According to data compiled by TransUnion, the average
- 12 credit card debt for Americans was an estimated $5,733 through the
- 13 first quarter of 2023. Additionally, in a 2022 report by the
- 14 Federal Reserve, 18% of households were not expecting to pay all of
- 15 their monthly bills in full for October of that year, with 33% of
- 16 low-income adults not expecting to be able to pay their bills in
- 17 full; and
- 18 Whereas, Personal financial education and money management
- 19 skills are crucial to ensure that all Michiganders, especially our
- 20 young people, are prepared to manage credit and debt and become
- 21 responsible workers, heads of households, homeowners, investors,
- 22 entrepreneurs, business leaders, and productive citizens; and
- 23 Whereas, Expanding access to the mainstream financial system
- 24 will provide individuals with less expensive and more secure
- 25 funding options for managing finances and building wealth; and
- 26 Whereas, The young people of our state represent Michigan's
- 27 single greatest resource who, in the years ahead, will assume
- 28 leadership positions and responsibility for the advancement of our
- 29 society; and

Whereas, Financial Literacy Month highlights the commitment of 1 2 Michigan banks and credit unions to strengthen the financial knowledge of Michigan citizens to prepare them for a fiscally 3 4 responsible future; now, therefore be it Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of 5 6 this legislative body declare April 2024 as Financial Literacy 7 Month in the state of Michigan. We encourage raising public 8 awareness about the importance of personal financial education in 9 Michigan and the rest of the United States. This will help address 10 the serious problems that are associated with the mismanagement of 11 personal finances; and be it further 12 Resolved, That we call on each parent, school, business, financial institution, community organization, and unit of 13 14 government to observe the month with appropriate programs and 15 activities. 16 17 18 19
