23 freedom and dignity was afforded to as many people as possible
24 throughout her entire life, regardless of the dangers she 25 inevitably faced everywhere she went. She possessed a selfless 26 attitude, an undying fortitude for justice and bravery; and

27 Whereas, We recognize the integral role the abolitionist
28 movement made in our nation's history, and moving us closer to true
29 equality of life for all Americans; now, therefore, be it
