

Revised Statutes of 1846 (EXCERPT)
R.S. of 1846
MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

322.349 Books and papers relating to state lands; custody of commissioner of state land office.

Compiler's Notes: <Paragraph><P>The office of commissioner of the state land office, referred to in this section, was abolished and the powers and duties thereof transferred to the public domain commission by MCL 322.221. The public domain commission was subsequently abolished and the powers and duties thereof transferred to the department of conservation by MCL 299.2. The department of conservation was subsequently transferred to the department of natural resources by MCL 16.352.</P></Paragraph> 322.350 Repealed. 2011, Act 167, Imd. Eff. Oct. 11, 2011.

Compiler's Notes: <Paragraph><P>The repealed section pertained to the furnishing of a map of each county by the state geologist.</P></Paragraph>

322.351 Descriptions of lands sold; transmittal by commissioner of state land office to county treasurer.

322.352 Plats by commissioner; recording.

322.353 Descriptions of lands sold; delivery by county treasurer to township supervisors.

322.354 Patents; recording by register of deeds.

322.355 Incidental expenses of state land office; allowance, payment.

322.356 Ineffectual certificate of purchase; surrender, refund.

322.357 Assignees of purchasers; rights and liabilities.

322.358 State lands; sale according to United States survey; exceptions.

322.359 Subdivided lands; new certificates of purchase, issuance.

322.368 University lands; obligations receivable in payment of principal.

322.369 University lands; obligations receivable, limitation.

Compiler's Notes: <Paragraph><P>The acts referred to in this section are Act 20 of 1844 and Act 83 of 1844.</P></Paragraph>

322.371 University lands; obligations receivable, credit to university fund.

322.372 Certificates of purchase; seal as evidence of execution.