388.1865f.added Policies and procedures for accepting and awarding college level equivalent credit examinations.

Sec. 265f. (1) Each public university that receives an appropriation in section 236 shall demonstrate the acceptance of nationally recognized college level equivalent credit examination opportunities by developing and implementing policies and procedures for the awarding of academic credit through college level equivalent credit examinations.

(2) A public university shall not create policies or procedures that prevent students from earning college credits through college level equivalent credit examinations once enrolled in the public university.

(3) Each public university shall make its credit policies and opportunities for college level equivalent credit examinations publicly available on the university's website.

(4) If a public university requires scores above those recommended by the American Council on Education to earn college credit through college level equivalent credit examinations, that university shall submit to the house and senate appropriations subcommittees on higher education, the house and senate fiscal agencies, and the state budget director a report on the data and justifications for that decision by February 1, 2023.
