UNIFORM COMMERCIAL CODE (EXCERPT) Act 174 of 1962

440.9336 Commingled goods.

Sec. 9336.

- (1) As used in this section, "commingled goods" means goods that are physically united with other goods in such a manner that their identity is lost in a product or mass.
- (2) A security interest does not exist in commingled goods as such. However, a security interest may attach to a product or mass that results when goods become commingled goods.
 - (3) If collateral becomes commingled goods, a security interest attaches to the product or mass.
- (4) If a security interest in collateral is perfected before the collateral becomes commingled goods, the security interest that attaches to the product or mass under subsection (3) is perfected.
- (5) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (6), the other provisions of this part determine the priority of a security interest that attaches to the product or mass under subsection (3).
- (6) If more than 1 security interest attaches to the product or mass under subsection (3), the following rules determine priority:
- (a) A security interest that is perfected under subsection (4) has priority over a security interest that is unperfected at the time the collateral becomes commingled goods.
- (b) If more than 1 security interest is perfected under subsection (4), the security interests rank equally in proportion to the value of the collateral at the time it became commingled goods.
