UNIFORM COMMERCIAL CODE (EXCERPT) Act 174 of 1962

440.9613 Contents and form of notification before disposition of collateral; generally.

Sec. 9613.

Except in a consumer-goods transaction, the following rules apply:

- (a) The contents of a notification of disposition are sufficient if the notification does all of the following:
- (i) Describes the debtor and the secured party.
- (ii) Describes the collateral that is the subject of the intended disposition.
- (iii) States the method of intended disposition.
- (iv) States that the debtor is entitled to an accounting of the unpaid indebtedness and states the charge, if any, for an accounting.
  - (v) States the time and place of a public disposition or the time after which any other disposition is to be made.
- (b) Whether the contents of a notification that lacks any of the information specified in subdivision (a) are nevertheless sufficient is a question of fact.
- (c) The contents of a notification providing substantially the information specified in subdivision (a) are sufficient, even if the notification includes information not specified by that paragraph or minor errors that are not seriously misleading.
  - (d) A particular phrasing of the notification is not required.
- (e) The following form of notification and the form appearing in section 9614(c), when completed, each provides sufficient information:
